Beecher and Future Faith.

A Congregational Council convenes to-day in New York. Drs. Budington, Storrs and Helmers' churches will not participate in the proceedings of the council because Henry Ward Beecher is excluded. A very sensible action. Beecher was cleared by the Civil and Ecclesiastical courts, and stands to-day a peer of any of his opponents. He wields a force for permanent good not exceeded by any man in the United States. His thought is elevated; its presentation is concise and elegant. He gives one fresh life and renewed inspiration. He dissipates moral staidness, giving in its stead moral life. He lives in the present, and only exhumes remnants of the past to give increased force to this living present. Being human, he may have erred; if so he has been fully punished. He is a man who possesses positive qualities and esteems them of higher worth than negative virtues. We would that he were less trammelled by dogmas which demand too sweeping concessions from the mind. We would hail him in that position which his thoughts in moments of "clearness and vigor" would lead him to assume. But he stands in that religious transition period which is now slowly ushering the dawn of a purer, grander religious principle, and his work may be more effective for the attainment of the better, though possibly distant faith, than are the labors of Swing, McKaig, Hamilton, Deems, Stebbins and a host of others. Despite the religious revivals and the seeming steady growth of the church there is an increasing dissatisfaction among the better educated church members with the strict and often irrational tenets of many of the Christian church. This element in the church is in danger of tacitly allying itself with a large class of moral men and women on the outside who hold to more or less "skeptical" views. Hundreds, yes, thousands, turn in their confused search for divine truth from the "orthodox faith" to spiritualism. The effects of such a change is seldom for the better. Old forms are clung to with a tenacity only compatible with a blind faith. And by these "traditions," as they were, the true spirit of the word is made of no effect. The best educated clergymen lightly pass over much that is declared in the church faith while the tenor of their discourses contain nothing distasteful to the most liberal minded. The result is that the mass of church-goers know but very little of the faith to which they years before gave public assent.

PRESS OPINIONS OF LA. AFFAIRS.—The New York World regards the political situation in Louisiana as graver than in November. The people do not like the appointment of a commission and will not make any concessions not enforced by the Military. The Nicolls government will complete its organization regardless of instructions. The people are tired of Hayes and his new policy. The Times regards the object of the commission to effect a compromise between the two parties which shall be agreeable to the rival governments. It is very much doubted whether any good results will come from the action and work of the commission. The names of the commission are not known. John M. Horton however is one of them. The Tribune mentions the name of Wayne Macveagh of Pennsylvania. Freylinghuysen of New Jersey may also be appointed, and Porter from Indiana. If these men are appointed the commissioners will be Brown, Horton, Macveagh, Freylinghuysen, and Porter.

A Richmond special of yesterday says: Chamberlain passed here to-day. He stated that he had no communication from the President on the subject of his visit other than the published letter of invitation. As to what was wanted he could not tell, and did not know whether it was desired that he and Hampton should meet face to face.

Marshal Douglas has instituted Civil Service Rules for the government of dismissals and appointments in his office.

The late Oliver Ames was, it is said, the wealthiest man in New England—his estate being valued at $15,000,000.

Withdrawn.

The Bananza firm have withdrawn their proposition to advance money to Storey county. The reasons are not stated, but are probably found in the fact that no such proposition could be accepted in good faith. We are glad to know that such is the case, because we believe that the county will gain much by standing upon her rights. Had the proposal been dictated by generosity, the simple course would have been to pay under protest, and without conditions. As the case now stands, the legality of the present tax will be fully tested and forever set at rest. If the tax upon the product of the mines be unjust the State must live without it. If just, she must have the full amount due her. The proposition to appropriate the entire sum to the use of the county could not stand, and was merely intended as a thrust at Governor Bradley's administration. To remit the penalties was beyond the powers of the Commissioners, and was not desirable as matter of justice. For the sake of Storey county and the State at large, we rejoice that the decisions of the courts are to become final. And we hope that all concerned will abide cheerfully by such a just determination.

The people want to know whether they have any rights, and the courts are now listening to their plea. Generosity and compromise form no part of the case, but simple justice is to say who was right.

The Desert Land Bill.

U. S. LAND OFFICE,
CARSON, NEV., March 27, 1877.
EDITOR EVENING GAZETTE—Dear Sir:—In the Carson Appeal of this morning will be found a reprint of circular received by this office, concerning the sale of desert lands.

Please copy the same in your paper for the information of the public, and oblige yours, respectively,

C. N. HARRIS,
Register.
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 12, 1877.

Register and Receiver, U. S. Land Office—Gentlemen: The following is the text of an Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1877, and entitled "An Act to provide for the sale of desert lands in certain States and Territories:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the U. S. of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for any citizen of the United States, or any person of requisite age "who may be entitled to become a citizen, and who has filed his declaration to become such, and upon payment of twenty-five cents per acre, to file a declaration, under oath, with the register and receiver of the land district in which any desert land is situated, that he intends to reclaim a tract of desert land not exceeding one section, by conducting water upon the same, within the period of three years thereafter; provided, however, that the right to the use of water by the person so conducting the same, on or to any tract of desert land of six hundred and forty acres shall depend upon bona fide prior appropriation; and such right shall not exceed the amount of water actually appropriated, and necessarily used for the purpose of irrigation and reclamation; and all surplus water over and above such actual appropriation and use, together with the water of all lakes, rivers and other sources of water supply upon the public lands and not navigable, shall remain and be held free for the appropriation and use of the public for irrigation, mining and manufacturing purposes, subject to existing rights. Said declaration shall describe particularly said section of land if surveyed, and, if unsurveyed, shall describe the same as nearly as possible without a survey. At any time within the period of three years after filing said declaration, upon making satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the reclamation of said tract of land in the manner aforesaid, and upon the payment to the receiver of the additional sum of one dollar per acre for a tract of land not exceeding six hundred and forty acres to any one person, a patent for the same shall be issued to him. Provided, that no person shall be permitted to enter more than one tract of land and not to exceed six hundred and forty acres which shall be in compact form.

Section 2. That all lands exclusive of timber and mineral lands which will not, without irrigation, produce some agricultural crop, shall be deemed desert lands, within the meaning of this act, which fact shall be ascertained by proof of two or more credible witnesses under oath, whose affidavits shall be filed in the land office in which said tract of land may be situated.

Section 3. That this act shall only apply to and take effect in the States of California, Oregon and Nevada, and the Territories of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, Arizona, New Mexico and Dakota, and the department of the Interior shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several land offices in said States and Territories, a circular containing the provisions of this act, and the manner of filing under this act for unsurveyed missioner of the General Land Office. The declaration specified in the first section of the act, to be filed with the Register and Receiver, must be under oath, and may be executed before either the Register or Receiver, or the clerk of any court of record having a seal. It must set forth that the applicant is a citizen of the United States, or that he has declared his intention to become such, in which case a duly certified copy of his declaration of intentions to become a citizen must be presented and filed. It must also be set up that the applicant has made no other declaration for desert lands under the provisions of this act, and that he intends to reclaim the tract of land applied for, not exceeding one section, by conducting water thereon within three years from the date of his declaration. The declaration must also contain a description of the land applied for, by legal subdivisions if surveyed, or, if unsurveyed, as nearly as possible without a survey by giving with as much clearness and precision as possible the locality of the tract with reference to known and conspicuous landmarks or the established lines of survey, so as to admit of its being thereafter readily identified when the lines of survey come to be extended.

It is hereby certified that under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1877, entitled "An Act to provide for the sale of desert lands in certain States and Territories," has this day filed in this office his declaration of intentions to reclaim the following described tract of land, viz: — that he has proven to our satisfaction that the said tract of land is desert land as defined in the second section of said act, and that he has paid to the Receiver the sum of — dollars, being at the rate of twenty-five cents per acre for the land above described.

It is, therefore, further certified, that if within three years from the date hereof the said —, or his assignee or legal representative, shall satisfactorily prove that the said land has been reclaimed by carrying water thereon, and shall pay to the Receiver the additional sum of one dollar per acre for the land above described, he or they shall be entitled to receive a patent therefor under the provisions of the said act.

—, Register.

—, Receiver.

As preliminary to the filing of such declaration, it must be satisfactorily shown that the land therein described is desert land as defined in the second sec. of the act. To this end you will require the testimony of at least two disinterested and credible witnesses, whose testimony you will reduce to writing in the usual manner; or the evidence may be furnished in the form of affidavits executed before the clerk of any court of record having a seal, the credibility of the witnesses to be certified by said clerk. The witnesses must clearly state their acquaintance with the premises and the facts as to the condition and situation of the land upon which they base their judgment. You are particularly enjoined to exercise great care as to the sufficiency of the proof upon this point in case after this proof has been made to your satisfaction, the Receiver will receive from the applicant the sum of twenty-five cents per acre for the land applied for: the Register will receive and file his declaration, and you will jointly issue, in duplicate in the following form:

No. —, U. S. LAND OFFICE,

18 —. You will deliver one copy of this certificate to the applicant, retaining the other copy with the declaration and proof. You will number the certificates in the order of their issue. The Register will keep a record of the certificates issued, showing the number, date, amount paid, name of applicant, and description of the land applied for in each case, and in addition, he will note the same upon his plats and records as in cases of ordinary entry. At the end of each month he will with his regular returns, forward to this Office an abstract of the declarations filed during the month, accompanying same with the declarations and proofs filed in each case. The Receiver will also account for the money received under this act in the usual form. At any time within three years after the date of filing the declaration and the issue of certificate the proper party may make satisfactory proof of having conducted water upon the land applied for. This proof must consist of the testimony of two disinterested and credible witnesses, who must appear in person before the Register and Receiver. They must declare that they have personal knowledge of the condition of the land applied for, and of the facts to which they testify; and their testimony must be reduced to writing in the usual manner. You will also require the party to present and surrender the duplicate certificate issued when the declaration was filed. When this is done, and the final proof made to your satisfaction, the Receiver will receive the additional payment of one dollar per acre, receipting therefor in duplicate in the usual manner, but indorsing upon the face of the receipt a reference to this act. The Register will also issue a final certificate of purchase in the ordinary form of cash certificates, endorsing also upon the face of the certificate a reference to this act. You will give to these final receipts a special series of number, and will make separate abstracts of same at the end of each month, sending up the final certificates, receipts, and proofs as in cases of ordinary pre-emption entries. In cases where declarations shall be filed under this act for unsurveyed lands you will immediately forward copies of the declarations to the Surveyor General.

You will acknowledge receipt of this Circular. Very respectfully,
J. A. WILLIAMSON,
Commissioner.

HAYES SOUTHERN POLICY.—Concerning the alleged assurances of the President to Southern gentlemen, involving the withdrawal of troops from the Capitals of Louisiana and South Carolina, several of the prominent Southern men who have been referred to as parties to various alleged agreements on this subject, say they are as well satisfied as at any previous time, that in the end no Southern State Government will be sustained by Federal troops. They consider nothing has been done by the President since he endorsed the sentiments of Representative Foster's speech, or since he made them more emphatically his own in his inaugural address, which violates or indicates any intended violation of the policy thus announced; and therefore, even if the assurances given by Mathews and Foster had been made by the President himself, which was not the case, there is no ground for asserting that they will not be fulfilled.

A bill has been introduced into the New York Assembly providing that the Governor and Senate shall appoint three competent persons to act as a Board of Railroad and Telegraph Commissioners, to have general supervision over all railroads of any kind in the State, as well as telegraph companies, and examine their management from time to time.

Secretary Thompson is prouder of his book on the Papacy than he is of his political honors. When he first began reading up material for the work, he found that a knowledge of Latin, German and French was necessary to enable him to consult original authorities, and, though the old gentleman was over sixty, he pluckily set to work with a teacher and soon learned to read the three languages.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Chloroform Fails—Strychnine Tried—
A Woman in the Case.

Last night, about nine o'clock, Milton S. Campbell, the boot-black at Nick Hamersmith's barber shop, attempted to end his life. The history of the case, as gleaned from many sources, is about as follows: About the hour mentioned, Henry, the town crier, flew into a doctor's office, saying that Campbell had taken strychnine and was "dyin' shure." Henry was in such a rush that he did not give the medical man time to don his hat. So the astonished man had just time to grab a stomach pump and other instruments of torture and make his way as rapidly as possible after the fast disappearing form of the town crier. The chase was at last ended and the party arrived at a house on one of the back streets, where the would-be suicide was found curled up on the bed and frothing at the mouth. The doctor inquired into his condition, and was told that he had taken chloroform mixed with a prodigious quantity of whisky. The patient's breath carried no trace of chloroform, and the doctor wisely laid his stupidity to the amount of whisky which had been absorbed. In reply to all the questions Milt. would say, "I want to see Lotta; I want to see Lotta." The lady was finally induced to visit the sufferer, after he had attempted another poison and failed, owing to the presence of friends, who prevented him from taking strychnine. Upon the arrival of the lady all was quiet on the Potomac once more, and Milt. was over-persuaded to live.

The doctor explains his failure upon the ground, that he tried to take the chloroform clear and the burning of his mouth caused him to spit the poison upon the floor. He then took the whisky to cure his mouth. The patient thrashed and tore around for some time but finally became quiet, and without the appliance of any machinery whatever was placed upon the sure road to recovery.

The cause of this rash attempt is found in the statement that Miss Lotta found her support inadequate with Milton, and she sought to better her condition by hiring out. This "Isolation" chilled the heart of Campbell, who resolved that he had lived long enough in this vale of tears. After cogitating upon the matter he resolved to drop the curtain upon his human existence and flee to the skies. He tried it and failed, as above described.

UNHAPPY.—Dan Mattox has been out of jail several days now, and does not feel well. Poor unfortunate Dan was once a useful man and now finds himself only a wreck and an outcast. There was a good sermon to-day in his conversation as he said, "I unloaded a car-load of coal to-day for twenty-five cents." "What did you do with the money, buy whiskey?" "W-e-l-l, I got one drink. Ah! my friend, don't mock; drinking is catching. I little dreamed twenty years ago that I'd be stuck after whiskey like this—now give me a drink, won't you?"

PETITION.—A petition is in circulation to-day for a fire tax. The limits will probably be the same as last year. The petitioners pray the County Commissioners to levy a fire tax on the property holders in the town fire limits of Reno. The tax is a just and good one, and of course the Commissioners will grant the citizens' request to be taxed.

BLACK HILLERS.—This morning a party of five left Reno for the Black Hills. Joseph Dow, J. Macanley and J. Dubb are Truckeeites, Dennis Quinn hails from Mackay & Fair's, and the fifth man we did not know. They are all large healthy men and go to make a strike. Success attend the boys.

K. OF P. BALL.—The Knights of Pythias give their invitation party on the evening of the 10th proximo, in Kimball's new hall. Varney's band of Virginia will furnish the music. The party is to be one of the best ever yet given in the town. The new hall will be in fine trim and is large and well ventilated.

SOCIETY.—The Methodists of Reno hold a sociable at the residence of W. H. Moe this evening, corner of Second and Lake streets. Members of the church congregation are respectfully invited.

HOUSE AND GARDEN PLANTS.—C. A. Simmons announces that F. Kuan of Sacramento has consigned to his care a choice assortment of house and garden plants. The collection comprises wall flowers, hanging baskets, evergreen shrubs and all of the common varieties of outdoor flowering plants. These will be offered at private sale until Saturday next, when the remainder will be sold at public auction.

E. Meyer makes a specialty of Bit Cigars. Those who have tried them smoke them again.

A PERILOUS CRUISE.

The "Pirate" Starts Down the Truckee—
The Rapids Passed—Glendale Reached.

This morning Wm. Seaton and Mr. Parmley started from Reno to undertake a perilous feat. This is no more nor less than an attempt to navigate the Truckee in a small skiff made for the purpose. The outfit is complete and evidently is the result of considerable study. The skiff is 15 feet long and 3½ wide, with a flat bottom and boarded over for some distance back. Upon the side she bears the name of Reno and on top is called "Pirate," with a skull and crossbones displayed, to frighten all tramps who may be encountered along the route. The "Pirate" is also provided with a spar and twelve yards of sail. The sail is used as a covering when night comes and will be hoisted when Pyramid Lake is reached. Ammunition, fishing tackle and fowling-pieces, with provision and "ballast," finish the outfit.

The undertaking is certainly perilous and exciting in the last degree, but with luck the voyagers will no doubt reach their destination. Many predicted that the rapids just below the Railroad bridge would put an end to the trip, but the "Pirate" shot these falls yesterday in fine style, and was anchored until this morning, when the voyage was to commence. About 9 A. M. to-day the boat set sail down stream, and rapidly disappeared from sight, going over the rapids without trouble, and avoiding the rocks like a thing of life. At noon the travelers were heard from at Glendale, where they stopped for dinner. One of the crew had mutinied during the trip, and Captain Seaton landed him on an island with nothing but a cork to live on. He was an old soldier known as M. T. Bottle. The "Pirate" again started on its course with fair prospects, and we expect to hear from it at Wadsworth.

Jottings.

Nineteen carloads of beef cattle were shipped from Reno to-day. Twelve cars go to Melrose in Alameda county, Cal., and the remaining seven go on to San Francisco. Thus are 323 head of cattle hurried into the hungry jaws of death.

The Indian Valley stage driver won't do to fool with. He had Justice Richardson to-day to stand in with him on a bill, and the debtor was forced to put up the mud for his little stage ride.

Rev. W. Lucas will take a two weeks vacation after Lent.

A report was circulated in town to-day that 601 had stretched a fellow in Truckee last night. The report was only a bruit and we were cheated out of a local and justice of another victim.

The rumored Chinese murder on Plaza street last night proved to be a mistake. The affair did not come off. Superintendent Hymers reports that the new ore body in the Golden Fleece fills the face of the tunnel, 6x4, and extends 10 feet above and to the right. The ore is more of a greenish hue than that found so far.

The weather is again unceremonious to-day. It is getting so windy that a man can't take any comfort in going to deposit his money in the Reno banks.

The Agricultural Society has leased the Fair Grounds to Jake Winnie of Carson for $1,250 a year. Winnie is a man in whom stock raisers have confidence. He will deal with them on the square.

To-day is not Ash Wednesday, and any man who goes about in his old clothes with a quantity of ashes indiscriminately scattered on his person, is out of order and will be put in Richardson's sweat box.

Clear Havana Cigars, two for 25 cents, at E. Meyer's New Cigar Store.

AT THE OLD STAND.—Pat Keliher has sold the Branch Saddle Rock and returned to the Saddle Rock original, next to the International hotel. This change has been made solely because Pat found himself unable to tend to both places with sufficient care. He prides himself upon his close attention to business and the large number of patrons which he has gained thereby. He now asks a continuance of past favors at the Saddle Rock and promises to deserve them more than ever. Old patrons only need to know the location while new comers are referred to the Saddle Rock for trial. Any man who is not satisfied will go free of charge. Pat points with pride to the number of fat men now roaming our streets, and confesses that his famous Eastern oysters and made dinners have done the work. Call at the Saddle Rock and you may be assured of good treatment and the best which the market affords.

HUNTERS.—Yesterday evening a party of Virginia City nimrods rolled into Reno and put up at the Granger Hotel. H. D. Clark, J. Carrigan, D. Kelly and F. Rauten compose the party. They say that they have been on a two week's hunt in Northern California, spending most of the time at Honey Lake. Game they found in abundance, particularly duck and crane. They brought with them a quantity of such game, tanned faces, fresh muscles, several pounds of adipose, remnants of old clothes and four jolly spirits, muchly invigorated by the physical man's tramp over mountain and valley. They are now ready for business. We have long been in need of such a trip and think of going off on such an expedition after Lent.

Signs of Spring.—"The Spring has come, the flowers in bloom," but the fact is still further assured by the announcement that Mrs. J. Prescott has just returned from San Francisco with her usual choice and varied stock of Spring styles. This lady has made selection for the Reno trade during several years and feels confident that she is offering an unusually fine stock of millinery to her patrons. It would be against her usual habit to claim any especial merit for her taste or care in selection, the ladies knowing from experience what to expect. A glimpse of the beauties may be obtained at her show window, but the variety will be found in the main store where Mrs. Prescott will labor to please her old patrons and the general public.

A MELTED GOLD PACKAGE.—Postmaster Jones had yesterday in his safe at the Post-office a mass of gold which had just arrived from Sedan, Indiana, where it had been recovered from the ruins of a burned postal car which was destroyed on the night of the 9th instant, through a collision between the eastern-bound Chicago and Buffalo Post-office train and a freight train. The gold was contained in several packages, and was subjected to such an intense heat the coins melted and ran together. It is now in a number of lumps and fragments, some of them scorched and partly melted, while others are round and shot-like, as if they had melted and dropped a distance, assuming their shape while falling. The mass is worth $25,000, and several of the blackened fragments would be a comfortable little fortune in themselves. The bullion came on from the West consigned to the care of Postmaster Jones, who will take charge of it until a plan can be arranged for distributing it among those who are entitled to receive it. Messrs. Eugene Kelly & Co., of Exchange place claim a part of it.

Davidson, the Jeweler of Reno, has just returned from San Francisco where he purchased a well-assorted stock of fine jewelry of the very latest styles, which he now offers at prices to suit the competition. SUPERIOR IRON HARROW.—I have a harrow which I offer to the public, which I think excels anything in the harrow line I have ever seen. It is made entire of the best Norway wrought iron, except the points of the teeth, which are tipped with four inches of the best steel. My harrow will cover grain or grass seed, being made to run deep into the ground or pass lightly over it. Another superiority which I claim for it is, that it has no dead motion like wooden harrows; when passing over the ground it has a swinging motion, which very much increases its efficiency. On the upper side are two bows or runners on which the harrow may glide smoothly along when it is being removed from one field to another. Any size desired promptly made to order. 3-10f W. J. LUKE, Maker, Sierra Street, Reno.

STAGE.—Hymers and Chism's stage for the Pyramid Lake mining district will leave Reno on Tuesdays and Fridays at 7 A. M. Returning will leave the mines on alternate days. This arrangement to take effect until further notice.

From the News of the 24th.
A. Hinkelbein has fitted up one of the prettiest little engines we have ever seen at Wagner's hardware store. It is nearly all his own handiwork, receiving only a few crude castings from the foundry. The outfit is complete in every respect and is in running order. It carries sixty pounds of steam and will run anything from a quartz mill to a sewing machine.

Major Henry is expected back from the East about the first of April, when additional force will be put on the tunnel. Mechanic James Montgomery is now engaged in putting the machinery in proper working order, and as soon as the Major arrives two more shifts will be put to work. EXCITED PIUTES.—Yesterday was a field day among the Piutes. A number of them mounted on ponies appeared on the flat on the other side of the river chasing a wild mule, which threw its rider last December and escaped to the mountains. Last week "Montana" offered the Indians ten dollars reward for the recovery of the mule. This incentive led the noble red man to scour the country in search of the animal which they discovered west of Winnemucca Mountain, but as he was as wild as a deer and the fleetest runner in the country, it was a difficult matter to catch him. They succeeded in driving him to town and capturing him. The saddle and head gear were still on the animal, which was in a pretty fair condition notwithstanding it carried a saddle on its back and a hackamore and blind on its head all winter.—Silver State.
